A QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER OF

THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S
EXCHANGE SOCIETY, INC.

Library: 6215 Sauterne Drive, Jacksonville, FL • 904-778-1000 • Web site www.sgesjax.com

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Giving Works. What does Giving Works have in common with the Southern Genealogist's Exchange Society? Much! We are now listed as a certified charitable organization on eBay. The charity icon tells you that listing is benefiting a certified nonprofit organization, so look for it and bid often! A portion of the sale price goes to the charity. Look for the ribbon

How does this work?

Do you sell on eBay? Are you familiar with the phrase "cause marketing"? Perhaps you aren't familiar with the phrase but you are aware of the many examples of "cause giving". Businesses realize they can support a worthy non-profit, like SGES, in committing a portion of their sale to their selected charity, providing the much needed funds to support the charity mission.

As a seller, when you sell your item, select "The Southern Genealogist's Exchange Society, Inc." as your eBay favorite charity. (Be sure to include 'The' when you search for charities).

The Ribbon icon will appear on your sale item and display your generosity. This makes it simple for you to help SGES. All it takes is listing and a buyer for your goods—and your generosity—you can pledge 10—100% of your final sale price. When the listing ends, the buyer pays you as usual and you ship to them and leave feedback—just like the normal sale. In the meanwhile, eBay Giving Works gives you fee CREDIT within 24 hours. The fee credit will credit back your insertion fee and the pledge portion of the Final Value Fee. A credit for the seller!

Mission Fish (the donation arm) will collect the pledged amount from you, as the seller. Mission Fish will then give the amount (less a very small processing fee) to SGES and furnish a tax deductible receipt to you. Business or individuals can take advantage of this easy giving. Just select us as your favorite charity. That easy!

Tell everyone you know and then some, especially businesses and friends that sell on eBay.

What if you buy but do not sell? Be sure to list us as one of your favorite sellers. Our sell name is Genealogy GoodsSGES. See if we have anything for sale when you log in to eBay. We are initializing the first items for sale now..

One other way you can help. Do you have a gift in kind you would be willing to donate? You will receive a tax deductible receipt. We will list and sell your item on eBay with the sale benefiting the SGES.

If you have any questions please contact Betty Reed @ 904-262-1948

THANK YOU!

As the list of new additions shows, we have had many generous donors recently. A special THANK YOU goes to Betty Rudd, Jon Ferguson, Bill and Anita Jones, Carla and Michael Mellott, C A Geiger, Taylor Graves, Harry and Blanche McKay, Cheyenne Wyoming Historical Society (by exchange), Genealogical Publishing Company, Clearfield Publishers, Estate of Helen Tsatsanis, and Paxton Books (Estate of Frank Paxton, Jr.). We also exchanged some books with Chamblin Book Mine. When you donate your used books (any title or type), we exchange them with Chamblin Book Mine for History or Genealogical books. It is a great way to enlarge our holdings without spending any money.

While we are dishing out Thanks, a special THANK YOU goes to George and Esther Thomas. George is keeping our grass cut and he and Esther do a lot of behind the scenes work. He also has scanned obituaries for the past several years.

What is your definition of “friend of the library”? My definition is personified in Harry and Blanche McKay. They have supported our Society for many years in the form of numerous donations of high quality books and research materials. Harry has also built shelving for the library and covered the ends of the metal shelving with paneling. Blanche and Harry have made many other contributions, too numerous to mention here. They are true “Friends of the Library”.

Google Maps, coming to a street address near you. (SMILE)

Now you can view a virtual picture of a location (street address).

Crews with 360-degree cameras attached atop their cars traveled the streets of Northeast Florida on public roads to capture the vistas.

I have checked out SGES – 6215 Sauterne Drive; my own home address; Gravely Hill Cemetery at 7242 Normandy Blvd;

Oaklawn Cemetery at 4801 San Jose Blvd. (even able to drive into the cemetery and look around). Have some fun and follow me through the process.

Here are a few Street addresses you may like to explore ; Mandarin Cemetery, 11235 Mandarin Road; Riverside Memorial Cemetery, 7242 Normandy Blvd; Greenlawn Cemetery, 4300 Beach Blvd. and whatever else you desire.

Drag the little orange man around on the map and you can drive down the street or across town without use of any gas and in any neighborhood without concern of being shot, mugged, or robbed.

Big brother is truly watching now. Catch the onsite movie to prove the point.

QUARTERLY NEWS

Your articles are welcome by the editor, Nadine Ferguson. Guidelines were in the June Quarterly but just a reminder of some: No formatting such as footnotes, bold print, double spacing. Please spell out the names of the months, counties and states. Sources will be listed at the end of the article.

The deadline for the September Quarterly is August 15th. We need time to edit and get the material organized for printing.

You may submit your articles by email to: jonadineferguson@aol.com.

Queries are welcome. We have a nationwide mailing list and somewhere out there a relative is waiting to be found.

Thanks for your cooperation. Nadine
